Your Responsibility:

For the wellbeing of all travellers, tour guests are expected to conduct themselves in an orderly and acceptable manner and not disrupt others. You agree to comply with these terms and the terms that apply to any goods or services supplied to you by other operators. You also agree to comply with our reasonable requests and the requests of other operators. If a tour guest is found engaging in any inappropriate behaviour and to ensure the comfort and safety of our customers, YOURTours reserves the right to remove them from the tour. This decision is made to maintain a safe and respectful environment for all participants. You indemnify us for any liability, costs, damages, or other expenses we suffer or incur as a direct or indirect consequence of your behaviour while part of your tour.

Customs, Immigration and New Zealand Law:

If applicable, it is your responsibility to comply with any New Zealand immigration, customs and/or quarantine regulations when entering New Zealand. We will not, under any circumstances, have any liability or responsibility to you if you do not comply with any customs and immigration rules and regulations or if you fail to comply with any New Zealand laws. Should you fail to comply with immigration requirements, resulting in you being unable to re-enter New Zealand, you indemnify us for any liability, costs, damages or other expenses incurred.

Business Purposes:

You agree that where our services are acquired for business purposes, or where you hold yourself out as acquiring our services for business purposes, the Consumer Guarantees Act 1993 will not apply to any supply of goods or services made under these conditions.

Governing Law:

This agreement is covered by the laws of New Zealand. Any claim or legal action against overseas suppliers is likely to be subject to the terms of your contract with them and may be governed by the laws of other countries.

Group Tour Departures:

YOURTours operate Hosted Small Group tours subject to a minimum number of participants. On receiving an initial deposit payment for a booking, we will send you a confirmation invoice and subsequently advise you once the tour departure is guaranteed. This will be no later than 10 weeks prior to the departure date. We reserve the right to cancel the tour up until 10 weeks prior to departure.

Health and Fitness Requirements:

To participate in our tours, travellers must be in good physical and mental health and fully capable of taking part in the activities outlined in the tour itinerary. This includes the ability to walk unaided at a reasonable pace. Walking poles or sticks may be used for balance, provided no additional assistance or support is required. Please note that YOURTours is unable to accommodate walking frames on international tours.

At the time of booking, travellers are required to disclose any physical or medical conditions that may require special accommodations during the tour. If you have any concerns, we strongly encourage you to consult with a YOURTours representative prior to booking to assess the suitability of the tour. In some cases, you may be required to sign a disclaimer form by the in-country tour provider before participating in specific activities.

By booking the tour and paying the deposit, all travellers acknowledge that they are in good physical and mental health, fit to travel, and are not travelling contrary to medical advice.

YOURTours will not be liable for any injury, illness or loss of enjoyment resulting from a disability or medical condition. Where a component of the tour, or the tour in its entirety, is not able to be provided as a result of a disability or medical condition, no refund will be available. Additionally, YOURTours maintains the authority to cancel any booking or remove any tour guest from a tour based on health and fitness considerations, without responsibility for any subsequent loss or additional expenses incurred.

Limitation of Liability

Eastern Africa Explorer: 2 September 2026

The Consumer Guarantees Act 1993, the Fair-Trading Act 1986, and other statutes in New Zealand may impose warranties, conditions or obligations upon us which cannot by law (or which can only to a limited extent by law) be excluded. We exclude all such imposed warranties, conditions or obligations to the extent permitted by law and exclude any warranty, condition or obligation imposed or implied under common law, equity or otherwise. Except to the extent that the law prevents us from excluding liability and as expressly provided for in these terms, we shall not be liable for any loss or damage or liability of any kind whatsoever (including consequential loss or lost profit or business) whether suffered or incurred by you or another person and whether in contract, or tort (including in negligence), or otherwise and whether such loss or damage arises directly or indirectly from Work or Goods provided by us to you. To the extent that we are liable for any reason for any loss suffered or liability incurred by you arising from any breach of these terms or for any other reason, such liability is limited to the price of your tour.

Images

By completing and signing your tour booking form, you agree our tour host may take photographs and/or video of you during your booked tour, you also agree any such photograph or video may be used and/or published by the company for use on our social media page or group, or in print or electronically for any lawful purpose including publicity, advertising and on our website. If you do not wish your photo to be taken for these purposes during your tour, please advise the company in writing prior to the start of the tour, to ensure we do not include you in published pictures.

Health and Safety Information

The health and safety of our clients, staff, and partners are of utmost importance. By booking a tour with us, you acknowledge and agree to the following health and safety guidelines:

While vaccination against COVID-19 or other illnesses may not be mandatory for participation in our tours, clients are strongly encouraged to be fully vaccinated before travel. Certain destinations or service providers may have their own vaccination requirements, and it is the client's responsibility to ensure compliance with these.

Clients are advised to carry Rapid Antigen Test kits for self-testing if COVID-19 symptoms or symptoms of other communicable diseases occur while traveling. If a client tests positive for COVID-19 or any other illness designated as a pandemic by the World Health Organization (WHO), they must inform our team and follow the regulations of the destination, including isolation if required.

Isolation and Associated Costs: Any additional costs arising from mandatory isolation, such as accommodation, meals, transportation, or medical expenses, are the responsibility of the client.

For the safety of all participants, clients testing positive for COVID-19 or other pandemic-related illnesses may be required to temporarily withdraw from the tour until they are cleared to rejoin. No refunds will be provided for services or activities missed due to illness once the tour has commenced.

All clients are required to hold comprehensive travel insurance covering medical expenses, repatriation, and disruptions caused by pandemic-related illnesses, including COVID-19. It is the client's responsibility to verify their policy covers additional costs, such as quarantine expenses, missed services, or emergency medical care.

While we strive to maintain the highest safety standards, clients acknowledge that health and safety risks, including illness or injury, are inherent in travel. By booking with us, you accept personal responsibility for your health and well-being and release the tour operator from liability arising from health-related incidents during their trip.

We are committed to creating a safe and enjoyable experience for all travellers. Should you have any concerns about health and safety before or during your journey, please contact our team immediately for support and guidance.
